ADMISSIONS PACKET 2020-2021

The Halton School 11414 Beatties Ford Road Huntersville, NC 28078

ADMISSIONS CRITERIA:

The Halton School is a private independent school serving 3rd-8th grade students. Halton students have average or above average intellectual ability, and are perhaps even gifted in certain areas. In the traditional school setting, he/she may struggle with social relationships and have difficulty communicating with others and making friends. This student may have occasional outbursts when situations feel out of control or may seem withdrawn and isolated from the group. He/she may struggle with anxiety, perform poorly on tests, and may have trouble with executive functions such as preparing and organizing materials. While excelling in one area this student may perform poorly in others, even though they are intelligent and able to learn. The Halton School student tends to perform better in smaller groups with multi-sensory instruction and social skill support. While we often refer to our school as a program for children with Asperger's /Autism Spectrum Disorder; no formal diagnosis is required.

Students who would most benefit from The Halton school might have similar traits to or a formal diagnosis of:

- Asperger's
- Autism Spectrum Disorder
- Anxiety
- Sensory Processing Disorder
- Social Communication Disorder
- Attention Deficit Disorder (ADD) or Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD)
- Other learning differences

The Halton School is not able to serve students who have an intellectual disability or students who may have emotional or behavioral problems on a daily basis that cause him/her to need to be removed from larger group settings or who need a one-on-one instructor for most of the day.

The Halton School does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, sex, age, marital status, disability, religion, national or ethnic origin, or other status protected by federal or state laws or regulations in the administration of its admissions, educational programs, and financial aid policies, or its employment practices.
